Cadiz, Aug. 24. N. S.

ON the 11th Inſtant 10 French Men of War, commanded by the Count d'Eſtree, came to an Anchor off of this Port. Three of them carried Flags, which they ſtruck as ſoon as they had anchored, and put up broad Pendants as Admiral, Vice-Admiral, and Rear-Admiral. The 18th they came into our Port; the Admiral ſaluted the Town with 13 Guns, which were anſwer'd with the ſame Number; The Count d'Eſtree was afterwards viſited by the Duke of Albuquerque, Captain-General of the Spaniſh Forces on this Coaſt. One of the French Men of War is ſince ſailed for Malaga, with Orders from the Count d'Eſtree to two French Frigats which are cruizing off of that Port, and the reſt continue here. The Centurion Man of War, Captain Price Commander, came into this Port the 12th Inſtant. The Cæſar Frigat, Captain Andrew Scales, bound for Scandaroone, and the Popley, John Wilmot Commander, bound for Genoua and Leghorne, are arrived here from England. The 20th came in here a Dutch Pink of 16 Guns and 20 Men, having ſome days before fought two Algierines, the one of 22, and the other of 18 Guns, who boarded her, but met with ſuch Reſiſtance, that they bore away, having loſt ſeveral of their Men, and left five Moors on board the Pink. A Dutch Convoy ſailed hence this week for Holland.

Madrid, Sept. 3. On the 29th of the laſt month the King of Spain had one of his fainting Fits, which laſted about half an hour, and he has been ſince very weak, and obliged to keep his Bed. The French Ambaſſador's Audience, which was appointed for the firſt Inſtant, is put off by reaſon of his Majeſty's Illneſs. The Marquis of Leganez is arrived here from Italy. Our Advices from Ceuta ſay, the Moors continue before that place, not having been able to obtain Leave of the Emperor of Morocco to quit the Siege; that their Attacks go on but faintly, and that the Beſieged have of late made frequent Sallies, in which they killed a great number of the Enemy, and had in a great meaſure deſtroy'd their Works.

Venice, Sept. 5. A Convoy is preparing here, which will ſail in a few days with further Supplies of Men, Money, and Ammunition, for the Levant. The Secretary Nicoloſy, who is appointed by the Senate to go and aſſiſt Signior Ruzzini, their Ambaſſador, in the Negociations of Peace with the Turks, ſet out from hence the laſt week for Vienna. Our Letters from Rome ſay, the French Galleys, commanded by the Bailly of Noailles, departed the 18th from Civita Vecchia, but having ſailed as far as the Iſle of Ponza, they were forced back by contrary Winds; On the 24th they ſailed again, and we hear they are arrived at Naples. The Count d'Altamira, the Spaniſh Ambaſſador at the Court of Rome, died the laſt week.

Warſaw, Sept. 1. By the Letters from Lemberg which came in yeſterday we have Advice, that the King of Poland intended this day to ſet out for Halitz, the General Rendezvous of his Army. The Forces are all marching thither, and as ſoon as they are arrived, a great Council of War will be held, where 'twill be reſolved how to act this Campagne. It's feared the wet weather which hitherto continues, and has made the ways very bad, and thereby hindred the Forces from joining together ſo ſoon as was expected, will neceſſitate the laying aſide the Siege of Caminiec for this Summer, beſides that the Seaſon begins to be too far advanced for ſuch an Enterprize. The Plenipotentiary of this Crown for the Treaty of Peace is not yet named, 'tis thought the Palatine of Mariembourg, or the Palatine of Poſnania, will be choſen for this Employment. The King has made Prince Alexander, one of the Sons of the late King of Poland, Captain of his Guards. Prince Conſtantine, his Brother, deſigns to accompany the Queen-Dowager in her Journey to Rome.

Vienna, Sept. 6. The Emperor has appointed Count Oettinghen, General Schlick, and Count Marſigli, to be his Plenipotentiaries for the Treaty of Peace with the Turks, and their Powers and Inſtructions are diſpatching with all poſſible Diligence, that they may in a few days begin their Journey to the Frontiers with the Miniſters of Venice and Muſcovy, who are likewiſe preparing for their departure from hence. It is expected, that the King of Poland's Plenipotentiary will come by the readieſt way through Tranſilvania to the place of Treaty; ſo that the Conferences may begin in a ſhort time, for which we hear a Place will be appointed in the open Field between Carlowitz and Salankemen, where the ſame will be held in Tents pitched for that purpoſe; and if the Peace be not concluded before the Summer is over, which 'tis not doubted but it will be, ſeeing the Negociations are already very much advanced, a convenient Place will be made choice of on the Frontiers to continue the Treaty. Our laſt Letters from Hungary of the 30th of the laſt month ſay, the Imperial Forces continued in their Camp near Cobila; that the 27th General Palfi was detached from the Army with a Body of 1400 Horſes, 500 of which were Germans, and the reſt Huſſars, with Orders to paſs the Theyſſe at Senta, and to make an Incurſion towards Temeſwaer; the 28th the Bridge of Boats ſent from Peter-Waradin, was brought to the Imperial Camp, and was ſent away the next day to General Spielberg, who commands the Troops poſted near the Moraſs of Villowar, to be made uſe of as there ſhould be occaſion, and the Army had Orders to be ready to march the 31ſt; They had Advice, that the Tartars had joined the Turkiſh Army; that the Enemy's Bridge over the Danube was ready; that they were making two other Bridges over the Temes near Banzoua, and two more over the Moras of Ofeze: And ſome Advices from Hungary ſay, the Turkiſh Army commanded by the Grand Viſier had paſſed the Danube, and were encamped near Banzoua. We have an Account from Sweden, that the Alliance between the Emperor and that Crown is lately renewed, and ſigned at Stockholm by the Count Staremberg, the Emperor's Envoy at that Court.
